To Whom It May Concern:

In response to your request for a Safety Data Sheet (SDS) please be informed that an SDS is not required, by law, for this product, pursuant to Occupational Safety and Health Administration regulations. Specifically, section 29 CFR 1910.1200 (b) (6) (v) indicates that "articles" are not applicable to the Hazard Communication section (1910.1200) of the OSHA regulation.

OSHA's Definition Of An "Article" (From 29 CFR 1910.1200)

"Article means a manufactured item other than a fluid or particle:
(i) which is formed to a specific shape or design during manufacture; (ii) which has end use function(s) dependent in whole or in part upon its shape or design during end use; and (iii) which under normal conditions of use does not release more than very small quantities, and does not pose a physical hazard or health risk to employees."

This product, when used as recommended or under any ordinary conditions, should not present a health and safety hazard. However, use or processing of this product not in accordance with the product's recommendations or not under ordinary conditions may affect the performance of the product and may present potential health and safety hazards.
